Sunday March 4, 2018 @
2:00pm-4pm

Clinton Boyles

Clinton was born in McAllen, Texas on February 21, 1985. He grew up in the Dallas area and began drawing at an early age. After discovering his appreciation for art, he was introduced to the work of master painter Dalhart Windberg, who would become his teacher and mentor when Broyles was 15.

Working with Mr. Windberg over the years has motivated him to pursue a career in art. He has also obtained training in drawing and painting from Texas AM University, where he received a Bachelor's degree in Architecture in 2007. His studies there inspired him to incorporate an architectural theme in many of his paintings. Also, time spent studying in Italy has significantly influenced his work.

He is currently represented by the Southwest Gallery in Dallas and NanEtte Richardson Fine Art in San Antonio.

“Since childhood I’ve been encouraged to cut, color, smell, look and see. These things keep me painting. Painting and drawing are such a challenge and give you a sense of accomplishment as no other. Every day I see things of God’s beauty that amaze me. I would encourage everyone to find their passion and pursue it with all your heart and energy.”

Members Gallery

If anyone is interested in having pics of their work on the member’s gallery please send me a j-peg of the ones they want put up. If you have some up already we need to change them. Please send them the through the web site or to my personal address, donna.monroe12@yahoo.com

We really need to update the pictures, please send some new ones!!

Please take note, Linda Pepper has worked hard to get name tags for the paintings in our Permanent Gallery. If they are not up yet, they will be soon. Thanks Linda

Just a peek..... Into Hellon’s 90th Birthday Party
May God bless you and give you many more.

Special thanks to Diane Frossard not only for the great demo but all the information on perspective of drawing the horse. It was very informative.
