Bev Boren was born and raised in Texas and now resides in Trophy Club, Texas with her husband Ben. She is a signature member of the Outdoor Painters Society and the Southwestern Watercolor Society. She is also a member of the Oil Painters of America, American Impressionist Society, and American Watercolor Society.

Her work is primarily the result of her need to paint. Inspiration can come at any time and in any place. She is not confined to one subject area. She loves to paint a variety of subject matter as well as working in various mediums. Bev's paintings are created with things that capture her eye whether it's a still life, landscape, or capturing a person's personality. Painting is her way of connecting with the world and the people around her and sharing those experiences along the way.

In her words "Trying to describe or explain my efforts at painting or drawing seems like a futile effort. After all, I want my work to express itself without the necessity of words. My best hope is that my work will stand simply on its own, and find a connection with viewers where words fail".

Presidents Letter

Hello MPAS!

If you missed the Clinton Broyles workshop, you missed a very informative and fun workshop. Clinton did a great job, especially for his first time to do one. I had never been acquainted with a pallet knife. Clinton showed me that it was not only a fun tool, but a great shortcut! Thanks Clinton!

I am already looking forward to Kaye Franklin in April. I'm sure it will be great! By the way if you see Carol Durrum and Donna Monroe let them know they are appreciated for getting the demos and workshops up.

Gary Perrone will be feature artist in the small gallery. Gary is a talented abstract and impressionistic art. He has exhibited in galleries here and in Dallas.

November promises to be a great meeting. Velda Williams and Marty Graves will be in charge of refreshments, which we can look forward too. Beverly Boren will be doing the demo. I am looking forward to seeing her work in watercolor. It is sure to be amazing!

See You at the Meeting

BACKROOM ARTIST

Gary Perrone

Gary Perrone is a man of creativity. A lifetime artist and imaginative thinker, he creates art and resides in Mount Pleasant, Texas.

Perrone, a longtime Dallas resident, became a disciple of graphic design upon obtaining a BFA from the University of Hartford/Hartford Art School in 1983. Since then he has been a designer and creative director in both New York City and Dallas.

In 2001, Perrone turned his attention to creating fine art. The question arose, what do thoughts look like and how can they be represented visually? As he puts it, "The thought process itself became the thing I wanted to paint." His paintings, referred to as Subroutines, attempt to capture the endless rhythm of thought, conscious or otherwise, he feels is the "white noise" of the greater consciousness.

"My paintings are based on the idea that thoughts, indiscernible to the naked eye, can be represented visually. With that idea, I aim to give shape to my own thought processes and the visual noise within my mind. I see mental subroutines as having rhythm and chaos and color – they are omnipresent layers that can obscure the true nature of things. A certain kind of order emerges as thoughts materialize on the canvas, which I believe reveals the innermost self."

Nearly twenty years later, Mr. Perrone continues upon a path to abstraction – examining and reassembling his inner thoughts along with the influences of the world he sees. His love of painting and the evolution of his creative work is apparent in several new studio pieces that explore color and geometry.

Gary's creative energy extends throughout his existence. His artistic practice includes drawing, watercolor painting and sculpting. He maintains professional contacts in the advertising and marketing industry and posts his original writings online <https://www.perronestudio.com/blog>. He is an intrepid cook and his creative ArtCookies can be found at www.facebook.com/ArtCookies.

Workshops

April 6, 7, 8 2020 we will have Kaye Franklin doing our spring workshop. Fee will be $350. Don't wait to sign up as it will be opened to non-members after this announcement. I believe she has it advertised on her website already. Kaye's workshop is full and we will start a waiting list. The sign-up sheet is on the back table.

For those interested, I will have peanut brittle for sale at the Dec meeting. $8 for ½ lb. bag.

Donna

Thanks to Clinton Broyles for great workshop and bigger thanks for the Sunday demo painting he is donating to art society. He took it home for a few touch ups and I will get it from him when he demos for the group in Dallas (ACA). Thanks to member Gary Perrone for taking photos of the workshop. Look for those on the website shortly
